

JOB DESCRIPTION

Post: Bairns Hoose Rights, Advocacy and Trauma Recovery Worker

Responsible to: Bairns Hoose Coordinator

Division: Children and Family Services

Salary: £35,850 to £41,150 (pro rata for part-time staff)

Children 1st, VISION and VALUES

At Children 1st our ambition is for every child in Scotland to be safe, loved and well with their family. As a charity we offer emotional, practical, and financial support to help families to put children first and campaign to uphold the rights of every child.

We support the whole family when they need it, for as long as they need it. We offer help to prevent families reaching crisis point, to keep children safe and to support children and families to recover from trauma and harm

Service Profile – Context and Aims

Children 1st Bairns Hoose is based on the European Barnahus model, designed to deliver a child-friendly, multidisciplinary, and interagency model of justice, care and recovery for children who are victims and witnesses of all forms of violence. Children receive a coordinated trauma responsive plan to support their journey through the care, protection, and justice system. The aim of the Bairns Hoose model is to; prevent re-traumatisation caused by delayed and disjointed investigation and court proceedings, to keep children safe, allow them access to fair justice and to help them recover from the trauma of their ordeal. Bairns Hoose aims to place the best interests of the child at the centre of all the systems that are there to protect them and to offer the child and their family or caregivers all the support they need.

This post is based across Ayrshire – East Ayrshire, North Ayrshire and South Ayrshire. You will join a team supporting children, young people, parents and families who have experienced a Joint Interview from the Ayrshire Interview Team made up of Police and Social Work from across the Local Authorities. The service provides a wide range of recovery focussed support for children and families who have witnessed, been impacted by, or experienced abuse – including physical and emotional abuse, domestic violence, and sexual abuse.

Our Bairns Hoose team should have experience supporting young people, parents and families across a broad spectrum of care, justice and protection proceedings. We are committed to ensuring that where this fits with their professional background and experience, Bairns Hoose Rights, Advocacy and Trauma Recovery Workers offer support across different areas; undertaking support with family members and carers who can be impacted by their own experiences of trauma, as well as supporting young people who have experienced a range of abuse and trauma. This enables workers to have a diverse range of short, medium and long-term support, maximises opportunities for ongoing professional development and crucially, ensures a balanced workload to minimise potential for vicarious trauma.

Role Summary

The post holder will be a member of the Children1st Ayrshire Bairns Hoose team and will assist in the development and delivery of the Bairns Hoose by:

- Making sure that a child's rights based approach is at the heart of everything we do.
- Providing professional, high quality, trauma sensitive and responsive recovery focused support for the children, young people, and their families following joint investigative Interview.
- Ensuring that the therapeutic recovery support for children, young people and their families within the Bairns Hoose Team achieves the desired outcomes in relation to care, protection and justice, in particular preventing re-traumatisation, supporting and facilitating recovery and upholding the rights of the child.
- Contributing to the local impact and strategic and operational influence of Children 1st in the test, learn, development of the Ayrshire Bairns Hoose model, for the benefit of children, young people, and families.
